

Rising Second Grade Summer Reading Our Lady of the Valley School

Summer time is a great time to enjoy books with your family and to learn to read for enjoyment. Join the public library summer reading program and enjoy your summer.

Below is a list of books for the rising 2nd graders.

Frog and Toad are Friends by Arnold Lobel

One summer day Toad was unhappy. He had lost the white, four-holed, big, round, thick button from his jacket. Who helped him look for it? His best friend, Frog. Another day, Frog was unhappy. He was sick in bed and looking green. Who gave him some tea and told him a story? His best friend, Toad.

Leo the Late Bloomer by Robert Krauss Leo isn't reading, or writing, or drawing, or even speaking, and his father is concerned. But Leo's mother isn't. She knows her son will do all those things, and more, when he's ready. 'Reassuring for other late bloomers, this book is illustrated with beguiling pictures.

Amelia Bedelia (series) by Peggy Parish

Each book creates funny antics of the mixed-up housekeeper making for very entertaining adventures. These books have recently been republished.

Nate the Great (series) by Marjorie Weinman Sharmat

Ivy and Bean (series) by Annie Burrows and Sophie Blackall The moment they saw each other, Bean and Ivy knew they wouldn't be friends. But when Bean plays a joke on her sister, Nancy, and has to hide quick, Ivy comes to the rescue, proving that sometimes the best of friends are people never meant to like each other.

My Weird School (Series) by Dan Gutman These are funny books that the reluctant reader will love. The story is told by a rambunctious boy named A.J. These books are similar to the "Junie B." series with a boy protagonist.

Other books to consider reading :

Fancy Nancy series by Jane O'Connor

Junie B. Jones series by Barbara Park

Magic Treehouse series by Mary Pope Osborne
